Bishop's House

A BIT ABOUT OUR HISTORY... AND WHO WE ARE...

Welcome to Bishop's House. Firstly, thank you for your interest. Bishop's House is able to provide the service it does only because of its dedicated staff.

Bishop's House was founded in 1894 by Alexander Chinnery-Haldane (the then Bishop of Argyll and the Isles) as a place of Prayer, Study and Eucharist. This is still our purpose today. Chinnery-Haldane hoped that both staff and guests would enter into the spirit of this House. Our Bishop, Kevin Pearson, puts it like this:

“Argyll is a place where people come from all over the world, and it's important that when people walk into our churches they should feel at home. They should be able to see that there are people here who respect the sacraments.”

This is our work at Bishops House: to welcome people; to make them feel at home; to provide them (and ourselves) with a place of respect for God and others. Our work is vital to this. We may not all be preachers, teachers or members of clergy, but our cooking, cleaning and hospitality allows a deep and meaningful time with God for all those who come to be our guests at Bishop's House.

THE HOUSE

Bishop's House sleeps 23 guests in 8 twin rooms and 7 single rooms. The guests have their own dining room, lounge and use of the library. We rarely offer led weeks for the guests but instead allow the groups to make up their programme depending on their own needs.

LIFE – AND WORSHIP – AT BISHOP’S HOUSE

As the staff of Bishop’s House we all have a part in making guests of the house and visitors to the chapel feel welcome. Our hospitality is the key to our ministry. This is a ministry of space, giving guests and visitors the opportunity of quiet, time and space to reflect. As a result the routine at Bishops House is fixed only by service and meal times.

Guests are here on retreat and they often enjoy being on Iona without the pressures from the outside world. It is a time for them to relax, recharge, refocus to contemplate or simply to just enjoy being on the island. Many guests return again and again and tell us Bishops House as like their second home. We are here to make sure there time is the best it can be and will do what we can to make this to happen. This can be by helping with something they have asked or to simply be there to listen.

We are to show care for our guests through our work. The change in people from when they arrive to when they depart can be remarkable and rewarding for us knowing we played our part.

To work at Bishop’s Houses it is not necessary for you to share our beliefs, but it is absolutely vital that you’re able to fully respect the Christian ethos of the house.

SMOKING, ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

In the interests of fire safety smoking is not permitted in Bishop’s House. You are welcome to smoke outside, however please respect the property by placing all cigarette butts in the bins provided.

Alcohol is permitted in Bishop’s House, but please demonstrate respect for others and the ethos of the house by drinking in moderation. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted while working.

The possession and use of illegal substances (drugs) in Bishop’s House is strictly prohibited. Any member of staff found in possession of or under the influence of illegal substances will be immediately dismissed.

EXPECTED BEHAVIOUR

Bishop's House is a Christian retreat house and the staff are expected to demonstrate behavior in line with its ethos as a place of prayer, study and Eucharist. Here are some simple ground rules:

- Be polite. Treat others with courtesy and respect.
- Respect private space: remember the staff dining room is for all staff, the guest lounge is for the guests and bedrooms are for their occupants. Do not enter private spaces without permission.
- Respect the property of others and the House. If it's not yours do not move it. If you break something do not worry, but let the Manager or Hospitality Supervisor know.
- Respect the worship conducted in the House. You are not obliged to participate in any of the services, although you are most welcome. You must demonstrate respect for the Chapel and its occupants, particularly by keeping noise levels down at service times.
- No grumbling about the guests or fellow staff members. Grumbling does not resolve problems and makes our lives miserable. Concerns and complaints should be raised with the Manager in accordance with the grievance procedure.
- Enjoy yourself: Iona is a very special place, make the most of your time here!

MEALS

The team eats meals in the staff dining room. You are welcome to plate up and take your meal to your room on your days off. Breakfast foods can be found in the staff dining room.

If you have special dietary requirements, do please let us know before your arrival so we can ensure that you can be catered for.

MEAL TIMES

Lunch: Mon – Sun 1.00 pm

Dinner: Mon – Sun 7.00 pm

THE CHAPEL

There are daily services in St Columba's chapel which is at the heart of Bishop's House. All services are open to the public as well as to guests staying with us. You are welcome to use the chapel or the prayer gallery at any time for private prayer. All are welcome at Bishop's House, regardless of their beliefs.

GETTING TO IONA

Iona is a small island close to the far south west of the island of Mull, accessible by ferry and coach from Oban, which is the recommended port of departure for all travelers.

BY PUBLIC TRANSPORT TO OBAN

Trains run regularly from Glasgow's Queen Street station, see the ScotRail website for timetables and prices. Oban can also be reached by coach, departing from Glasgow's Buchanan Street bus station, see the CityLink website for timetables and prices.

BY CAR TO OBAN

Oban is two hours drive from Glasgow, or three hours from Edinburgh (via Stirling). Drivers may find a route planner helpful.

FROM OBAN

Ferries run regularly from Oban to Craignure on the isle of Mull, see the Caledonian-MacBrayne website for timetables and prices. The Ferry Terminal is a two minute walk from both coach and train stations. Car drivers who are bringing their car to Mull are recommended to book in advance.

AT CRAIGNURE

Coaches run regularly from the Ferry Terminal at Craignure to Fionnphort, the village from which you catch the ferry to Iona. See the West Coast Motors website for timetable and prices. Car drivers follow the signs for Fionnphort. Travel time is about one hour.

AT FIONNPHORT

Visitors are not permitted to bring their vehicles onto Iona, but a free long stay carpark is provided in Fionnphort. If you are mobility impaired and have a blue badge you can get a permit to bring your car onto the island, please contact Bishop's House for advice.

ON IONA

Bishop's House is the last building on the village street. Coming off the ferry head up the hill, take the first right turn, go past the post office, and keep going until you reach Bishop's House.

MAP OF IONA

For your own safety when walking by yourself, please inform a fellow member of staff of where you're intending to walk.

Additional maps are displayed by the back door.
